

Hawaiian Gazette.

VOL. XXXVII, No. 75.

HONOLULU, H. T., TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1902—SEMI-WEEKLY.

WHOLE No. 2421.

REPUBLICANS AGAINST WILCOX LEPER BILL

Orators Visit Kalihi Detention Camp and Tell Natives How, It Will Affect Patients.

In the face of Home Rule opposition orators of the Republican party pursued their campaign last night in the Kalihi Detention camp. It was a rousing meeting, hundreds of Hawaiians crowding the hall and porches, and the applause was full and hearty. The majority of the speakers thrust at the Wilcox fallacies and if the eager faces of the auditors indicated their feelings, the meeting was a most successful one. It was held under the auspices of the Young Men's Republican Club, with S. M. Kanakani in the chair.

One of the most eloquent addresses was that of Senator Kanakani who held his audience as if spell-bound when he replied to a Home Ruler in the hall who referred to him as a snake. With voice trembling with emotion, and with forcible speech, the Senator poured out his proof that he was far from being a snake, and that he was instead an angel of mercy to the Hawaiians. So forcible was the Senator that the natives listened in rapt attention, and the noise which had been started when he arose soon subsided. He asked them whether it was a snake that he went to Diamond Head, then to prison to sleep on a hard cot, and to eat unrelieved food and drink only water. Was he a snake then when he did all for the Hawaiian race. He challenged any man to fling the epithet again at his face when these facts were before them. He told them to follow Prince Kuhio, to vote for him that he might benefit them by his presence at Washington.

Paul Isenberg was introduced as the "Kamehameha II" of the party and the "Milkier of Wailua" as Wilcox had referred to him. He made a big hit and when in stentorian tones he called on all to follow the banner of Republicanism borne by Prince Kuhio and send him to Washington and help him to obtain benefits for the race, the cheering became intense. Isenberg said he was a good milkier, but he could do other things as well, and among these was to work hard in the Legislature. He too, was a Hawaiian, and he looked forward to work for the interest of his people. Times were hard and times that were good would come with the election of good honest men to the Legislature, and those men were in the Republican party.

William Aylett made a forcible speech. His heart was still heavy from the failure of the last Legislature to accomplish anything for the territory, he said, and in the next election he trusted the Hawaiians would vote for the men who would help them.

All the speakers referred in scathing terms to Wilcox's leper bill and pointed out to the people what would result if the care of the lepers was taken away from the island government.

Lorin Andrews made a ringing speech against the leper bill and roused the Hawaiians to a pitch of enthusiasm. Paul Isenberg at the conclusion of his speech had to sing. The natives wouldn't let him sit down until his voice had been heard and to an accompaniment of guitars and mandolins he sang "Ua Like no a Like," after making the Hawaiians promise that they would vote for him if he did sing.

DEMOCRATS NAME WILCOX AND SUPPORT HIS TICKET

Four Changes Only Are Made in the Entire List of Home Rule Candidates for the Legislature.

Democrats, to the number of 57 last evening, at Waverley Hall, turned over their organization to the Home Rulers. Chairman McCarthy rode over the minority without scruple, and Testa, in the role of boss, tried hard to complete the surrender by insisting upon the acceptance of the entire Home Rule ticket, with the change only of David Kawanakoa instead of Nottley for the Senate. The ticket nominated was as follows:

For Delegate: Robert W. Wilcox.
For the Senate: David Kawanakoa, Edgar Cayless and J. P. Makainai.

For Representatives, Fourth District: C. J. McCarthy, J. D. Holt Jr., H. A. Juen, G. K. Wilder, Joseph Aea and Keona.

For Representatives, Fifth District: Frank Harvey, William Mossman, D. M. Kupieha, S. K. Oili, N. K. Kou and Damiano.

When the meeting was called to order the question, "What are we here for," came up, and on motion of Terrell it was decided to place a full Democratic ticket in the field. Creighton thought there should be no nomination for delegates, but that each man should vote for a candidate, so as to get at the uninfluenced opinion of the majority. This was not to the taste of the bosses, for a motion providing for the nominations by a committee of ten was passed and Chairman McCarthy read from a list prepared before the meeting the following: John Effinger, H. A. Juen, W. H. Johnson, Charles Creighton, F. Terrell, J. O. Carter Jr., Julius Asche, H. J. Mossman, C. L. Rhodes and G. K. Wilder. Before this an attempt was made to name Col. Cornwell for the delegate, but it failed. The committee reported back the list as nominated, with the exception of J. O. Carter for senator instead of Makainai, and a full list of Democrats for the fourth district, the fifth district being as passed. The committee stood 6 to 4 for Wilcox and 9 to 1 for the remainder of the Home Rulers.

Immediately the fight against Wilcox was begun. C. L. Rhodes moved to insert the name of Cornwell for Wilcox but he was beaten, and then on a ballot Wilcox received 46, Cornwell 10, and Prince Cupid 1. Cornwell moved and the nomination of Wilcox was made unanimous.

John Colburn tried to speak but McCarthy said he had not signed the roll. Colburn asking if this was a new list of Democrats and being assured that it was, whereupon he and John Wise signed. Wise asked if Wilcox had signed the roll, but was told to sit down, as the question was not before the meeting.

Dr. Noblett moved that the rest of the ticket be named by a standing vote and Camarinos bolted, saying that he had come to help name a Democratic ticket and not to surrender to the Home Rulers, he being followed out by Sullivan.

Testa moved the substitution of Makainai for Carter, and this was done after J. O. Carter Jr. had said his father withdrew in favor of the Home Rule ticket. The senators were then named. J. F. Bowler withdrew from the representative ticket, and Testa took out the name of Camara. Testa then moved the naming of the entire Home Rule ticket, but after some talking H. A. Juen was substituted for L. K. Kentwell, and G. K. Wilder for Nauha. The fifth district ticket with Harvey instead of Ng Mon War was adopted.

The chairman was authorized to appoint a committee of six, with himself, on Platform, and as well a committee on Finance. The meeting then adjourned until Wednesday evening.

QUEEN OF THE BELGIANS DEAD

SPA, Belgium, September 19.—The Queen of the Belgians died this evening. Queen Marie Henriette was the daughter of the late Archduke Joseph of Austria, and was born in August, 1836. She had been ill for a long time.

WILL NOT BE A CARDINAL

ROME, September 20.—The decree to make a practice which threatened to establish a fixed precedent of promoting Apostolic delegates at Washington

FATHER LEONORE FOUESNEL PASSES AWAY AT THE CATHOLIC MISSION

THE LATE FATHER LEONORE.

YING upon a cot in the humble room in which he has resided at the Catholic Mission for nearly two decades and surrounded by nearly all of the Catholic clergy of the Territory, Father Leonore Fouesnel, the patriarch of the priests in the Hawaiian Islands, passed away peacefully yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. For nearly twenty-four hours the aged and revered divine lay almost unconscious upon his cot before death overtook him, but it was a death without suffering, and in his ears to the very last sounded the prayers which for more than half a century he had said during his active ministry.

It was an affecting scene when Father Leonore passed from the midst of his fellow workers. It was known early in the day that he had not long to live for he had been stricken on Sunday with cerebral hemorrhage and the physicians noticed even then that the hand of death was outstretched to lead him to his eternal rest. Shortly after three yesterday Father Leonore lapsed into unconsciousness. In the cathedral Bishop Gulstan, the local clergy and the visiting priests from the other islands who are in Honolulu in attendance at the Annual Retreat, were praying while Father Leonore's life was slowly ebbing to be Cardinals upon their recall is no reason for the appointment of the vanced by the Vatican as one of the most Rev. Diomedeo Falloni, former Apostolic delegate for the Dominion of Canada, to succeed Cardinal Martinielli as Papal delegate in the United States. It is pointed out that the selection of a prelate of higher position in the Church might have necessitated a continuance of the practice of the advancement to the Chapel, followed in the cases of Mgrs. Satoli and Martinielli. These were special proteges of Pope Leo, and it is not desired that their elevation be considered to establish a precedent.

To Grant Request

CONSTANTINOPLE, September 20.—In an audience yesterday the Sultan formally assured the Russian ambassador, Zinovieff, that the question of permitting four armed Russian torpedo boats to traverse the Dardanelles under Russian commercial flag would be settled to Russia's satisfaction.

OUF CHALLENGE

LONDON, Sept. 20.—Sir Thomas Lip-ton's challenge for another series of races for the America cup will not go to New York on the steamer Etruria, sailing from Liverpool today, as announced, but will be cabled to New York.

away. At his side knelt the faithful Brother Severinus, who has been a devoted attendant for years to the aged priest. Bishop Gulstan left the cathedral and came to see his old friend. Seeing that he was nearing death he knelt at his side and prayed for the repose of his soul. Other priests, finishing their devotions, came silently into the bare little room and dropped upon their knees. A candle was lighted and holy water was sprinkled about the dying priest's form. A last tremor and the Bishop looked up toward heaven. Heads were bowed low for all knew that Father Leonore was no longer in the land of the living.

On Sunday morning supported by four priests and attendants the Father entered the Cathedral for the last time and offered up his devotion to his Master. Almost fainting he was borne from the church and thence to his room and soon after the fatal hemorrhage came.

The funeral will take place this morning at ten o'clock the services to be conducted in the Cathedral. Bishop Robert Gulstan officiating. At 9:30 matins will be celebrated by the entire body of clergy, numbering some twenty priests, singing the office of the dead. The interment will be in the Catholic cemetery. The Bishop has issued a general invitation to the friends of the Mission and of Father Leonore, owing to the shortness of time necessary to issue invitations thereto.

Father Leonore Fouesnel was born August 13, 1823 in Allaire, Brenny, France. He was ordained priest in Paris in 1848 and arrived in the Hawaiian Islands with the Bishop of Aloha in 1854, proceeding to Walluku, Maui, which was his first station. He remained there from 1854 to 1883 when he came to Honolulu to take up his residence and service. He was appointed Provincial in 1891 continuing as such until some three years ago when he retired from active participation in the work of the Mission. Father Matthias succeeded to his office, since which time he has been the Honorary Provincial in Kailua. For this service he was decorated with the Order of the Star of Oceania by Princess Liliuokalani, acting as Regent in the absence of King Kalakaua.

Father Leonore was of an artistic turn of mind and it was due to him that the interior of the Cathedral was so beautifully decorated and gilded.

FRAMING LOCAL GOVERNMENT BILL

Republican Commission Discusses the Plans for a Proper Measure.

The commission named by Chairman Holstein of the Republican Territorial Convention to draft a bill to provide for city and county government, met yesterday and had a long preliminary talk over plans for future movements. The committee considered its duties in the largest sense and devoted the afternoon to discussion of the scope which is to be given to the measure to be framed.

A number of copies of the bill as formed two years ago were on hand and these furnished the basis for the discussion. The commission decided that the work should be pressed to an early conclusion, as there are a number of plans from which to work now before it. After discussing the plans informally for some time an adjournment was taken to Wednesday, at which time the commission will organize and rush through its work.

The members of the commission are: W. O. Smith, A. G. M. Robertson, A. L. C. Atkinson, E. D. Tenney and George W. Smith.

Mauians Not for Wilcox.

News from Maui shows that the feeling there is running strong in favor of Prince Kuhio. A letter received Sunday from Kihel says:

"The Republican party is very strong here on Maui for the coming election. The people here are not interested in Wilcox as in former times, and the hope is expressed that he will be badly beaten and that Prince Cupid will be elected by a large majority."

Verdict of Accidental Death.

The coroner's jury last night brought in a verdict to the effect that the sailor who lost his life in the harbor met his death through "accidental drowning."

Woods Looking for a Fight

F. J. Bryant, the Irish comedian, goes to Hilo today on the steamer Claudine as advance agent for "Billy" Woods, who expects to fight all comers in the Rainy City.

AUSTIN EVADES HEARING

He Takes Refuge In Technical Pleas.

Following a refusal of Auditor Austin to participate in the hearing of the charges preferred by Governor Dole, with a reiteration of the charge that the executive is acting beyond his powers in the matter of suspension, the matter will now probably be submitted to the courts. The question of salary which Austin claims must still be paid is the point upon which the courts will probably be asked to act. In executive conference yesterday following the expulsion of the newspaper men at the request of Attorney Ashford, the question of salary was brought up, Austin insisting that the suspension of himself by the governor was illegal, and that he therefore could not be deprived of his salary. The governor promised an answer upon the point which was sent during the afternoon. This was to the effect that the salary will not be paid during the time that Mr. Austin is under suspension, but if through the action of the Senate it should develop that the auditor had been illegally suspended, the entire salary will be paid to him. If upon the first of October, which is tomorrow, the acting auditor refuses to issue a salary warrant to Mr. Austin for the entire month of September, legal action may then probably be instituted, though Austin's attorneys refuse to give out any information of the next move on their part.

In the meantime Austin is denied admittance to the office, a uniformed officer standing guard day and night, though no further attempt has been made to effect an entrance on the part of the suspended auditor.

It was but a few minutes after the appointed time, ten o'clock yesterday morning, when Herbert C. Austin, accompanied by his attorneys, C. W. Ashford and A. G. M. Robertson, appeared before the governor in the Executive Chamber. Deputy Attorney General J. W. Cathcart and Assistant Attorney General E. A. Douthett were present on behalf of the government, Land Commissioner E. S. Boyd being the only one in attendance besides the newspaper representatives and the stenographer.

"Are you ready to proceed?" asked Mr. Robertson, after all had been sitting quietly about the table for a few moments.

"Do you wish the government to put on its witnesses on behalf of the charges?" asked Governor Dole in reply.

"I think it proper to first read the answer."

The answer was read as follows the document then being handed over to Deputy Attorney General Cathcart: Auditing Department, Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu, September 29, 1902.

Hon. Sanford B. Dole, Governor of the Territory of Hawaii, Honolulu, Hawaii.

Sir:—Your two communications, of the 25th and the 26th instant, respectively, have been received by me and have my attention.

In the first of those, you allege certain charges against me, and conclude with the announcement that, because of those charges, you suspend me from my office as Auditor of this Territory, pending such reply as I shall see fit to make to said charges, or such further investigation as may be had there-in.

In the second, and later, of said communications, you cite me to appear before you, at a place and hour therein named, to show cause why the suspension which you have undertaken to exercise, and which, as above, you have announced in the first of those communications, "should not be continued in force until my official conduct as Auditor of the Territory of Hawaii can be submitted to and acted upon by the Senate of the Territory of Hawaii."

In response to said citation I have the honor to point out the following facts, viz:

1. My tenure of office, and the mode of my removal, is and are fixed by the Act of Congress creating the Territory of Hawaii; and by Section 80 of that Act, which deals with this matter, there is no authority vested in the Governor of this Territory to suspend the Auditor for any cause; neither is such authority expressed elsewhere in said Act, which, as I respectfully submit, supersedes all the provisions for suspension of that official, as expressed in the Audit Act of 1898, under which, apparently, you have assumed to act, in your attempted suspension of me, as announced in your communication of September 25th, above acknowledged.

2. If, by any chance, I have erred in my construction of the law, as set forth in the preceding paragraph, you are still bound by the terms of the Audit

(Continued on Page 4.)